

Employment Opportunity

The Cambridge School

Position Title Upper School Bible Teacher (Chair Track)

Location The Cambridge School, San Diego, California

Reports To Upper School Principal

Job Type Full-Time Position

Salary Range $60,000-$75,000 depending on experience

About The Cambridge School

If you're looking for a meaningful vocation that seeks to form young people to live flourishing, eudaemonic lives while collaborating with thoughtful, mission-focused colleagues in an intentional community of faith and learning, The Cambridge School in beautiful San Diego, California, might be just the place for you!

We are a JK-12th grade Classical Christian school that is 18 years old and thriving. We are committed to equipping students to think well, love rightly, and live wisely through an educational model that is rooted in historic Protestantism and the best of the classical tradition. Our mission embodies a dedication to shaping students' affections towards the true, good, and beautiful by providing them with an education that is formative and not merely informative. While this is no easy task in our day and age, together we are faithfully seeking to cultivate wisdom and virtue in our students through our academically-vigorous and spiritually-robust community of faith and learning. If this resonates with you, please go to our school website at www.cambridgeclassical.org to learn more and apply!

At The Cambridge School, we believe a teacher is, first and foremost, a church-attending Christian who lives purposefully in light of Christ's redemptive work. They view their teaching role as an opportunity to model a Christian posture in the world and as a vocational occasion to love and serve their neighbor through winsome instruction in disciplines they know well and can communicate masterfully to diverse stakeholders. The teacher models intellectual, social, and characterological virtues, contributes to a collegial faculty culture, and authentically promotes the school's mission.

Position Overview

We are looking for an experienced educator who shares our Christian classical commitments and has a background in biblical studies. The ideal candidate will be an enthusiastic and thoughtful educator capable of engaging (primarily high school) students in meaningful biblical instruction that inspires them to take seriously and think clearly about the word of God, its system of doctrine, and church history. Additionally, the ideal candidate would eventually take on department chair duties, overseeing our K-12 Bible curriculum.

Continued on next page

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Plan and facilitate Bible lessons across various grade levels in the Upper School, adhering to the school's educational philosophy and in conversation with the Upper School Principal and Academic Dean.
- (Eventually) lead and manage the Bible Department, ensuring curricular excellence and alignment with the school's mission, engage in faculty evaluations, and regularly collaborate with other department chairs toward schoolwide goals.
- Facilitate, evaluate, and track student learning.
- Engage in continuous professional development and lead departmental workshops.
- Serve as an advisor to a small group of students.
- Collaborate effectively with colleagues, staff, and school leaders.
- Actively participate in school life, attending advancement events, school retreats, etc.

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Theology, Biblical Studies, Church History, or related field. Advanced degree strongly preferred.
- Minimum of three years of teaching experience, with a preference for those familiar with the Christian classical model.
- Exceptional written, oral, and interpersonal skills.
- Proven success in working collaboratively and communicating effectively with students, parents, and school stakeholders.
- Alignment with our school's statement of faith and commitment to the school's mission, vision, and values.

Benefits

- Competitive salary based on experience.
- Attractive benefits package including health options, retirement plans, and more.
- Opportunities for professional growth and development.

How to Apply

Interested candidates are invited to send a letter of interest, resume, and references to careers@cambridgeclassical.org.

The Cambridge School is an equal opportunity employer and welcomes candidates from all backgrounds who agree wholeheartedly with our Statement of Faith and our articulation of our mission.
